

Feeding grain/hay

- Newborn calves after a week begin getting grain
- In the morning empty the grain into the bigger buckets
 - o Fill the calf grain buckets back up with calf grain
- When finished feeding calves, bring the grain buckets to the calf barn
- Everyday at least twice a day, make sure there is clean grain in the feed buckets
- In the evening, top up the grain if needed